THE CANTERBURY TALES And other Poems GEOFFREY CHAUCER In The Canterbury Tales, we see, not . Chaucer, but Chaucer's times and neighbours; the artist has lost . himself in his work. To show him honestly and without disguise, as he lived his own life and sung his own songs at the brilliant . Court of Edward III, is to do his memory a moral justice far . more material than any wrong that can ever come out of . spelling. As to the minor poems of ...
