Charlemagne: Translated Sources. By P.D. King. The reign of Charlemagne (born 742, King from 768, Emperor from 800, died 814), was one of expansion for the Carolingian Empire. It would be a rare for a year to go by where Charlemagne did not have his armies engaged in warfare, either against Saxons, Northmen, Moors or other enemies. A great deal of sources remain which shed light on the campaigns and military affairs during this period. Several different sources are offered below: - Tue, 07 May 2019 21:01:00 GMT Charlemagne: translated sources | University of Kent The Life of Charlemagne - Home | York University HI4302 - The Reign of Charlemagne, 768-814 1.
