Set in the 80's in Venice Beach California, this novel vacillates between technical jargon, including lists of illegal ... I think I have chemically-induced pinkeye in both eyes. I ... It's very much does sound like a chemical conjunctivitis, likely caused by the adhesive. I do not necessarily think you need to remove the lashes, yet. I would recommend using preservative free artificial tears 4 to 5 times for the next several days as well as a lubricating eye appointment at night for 3 to 4 days. If this does not improve after that, I would see your 43. A chemical test for water - Royal Society of Chemistry A chemical test for water Introduction Some chemicals change colour when water is added to them. Some coloured chemicals owe their colour to the water molecules that are associated with them.
