Contemporary Peacemaking | SpringerLink Contemporary Peacemaking draws on recent experience to identify and explore the essential components of peace processes. The book is organized around five key themes in peacemaking: planning for peace; negotiations; violence on peace processes; peace accords; and peace accord implementation and post-war reconstruction. No. 2018/6 November 2018 - sipri.org Peace processes traditionally involve the main parties to the conflict.<sup>1</sup> The aim is to end the violence but other groups and wider society affected by the conflict are often excluded. <sup>2</sup> This exclusion is in part due to the complex Contemporary Peacemaking: Conflict, Peace Processes and ...
