Mira Grant This book has zombies in it, but to call it a zombie or horror novel does it a disservice. There are some awesome action sequences, but no gratuitous feeding scenes, screaming teenagers, or B-horror movie cliches or gore. Feed by Mira Grant - Fantasy-Faction Feed by Mira Grant It's somewhat appropriate to write a blog post about Mira Grant's Feed, seeing as its concerned not only with zombies, but blogging too. Here one comes and all – an attempt to review a truly wonderful book. Feed concerns the journeys of a group of professional bloggers who join the news team of a Republican Presidential Candidate through the run up to the election. In Deadline , there's a reference to the figurehead working for the bad guys having been planted to specifically prey on one scenario. Feed (Newsflesh Trilogy, #1) by Mira Grant - Goodreads — A Feed by Mira Grant Book Review I'm behind from my yearlong challenge, the quantity challenge which sponsored by Goodreads , for the past two months. It's like I'm working twenty-four seven in the outside world without knowing that I'm lying on my bed without doing something, idle for hours and it's becoming my favourite habit. Mira Grant - Book Series In Order Mira Grant is the pseudonym used by the famous American author Seanan McGuire, who likes to write her novels based on the horror, science fiction, and urban fantasy genres.
