Marie Rolf in the introduction to the Durand Critical Edition: "The 1909 edition of La Mer is the last printed version known to have been sanctioned by Debussy." The Critical Edition does, however, contain many important corrections (examples: the crescendo in 1st bassoon part on PDF page 4, bar 4 actually starts in bar 3, and what look like accents in the nearby trumpet phrases are actually ... La Mer by Charles Trenet: French lyrics explained To what degree should the translator allow biographical or other considerations to influence the rendering, especially if that information is more hypothetical or speculative than is the case with Trenet and La Mer? "Pond" is, after all, the usual equivalent of étang and a translator would have to have sound reasons for departing from it. Come to think of it, "sound" might actually be ...
